

AMSTERDAM STUDENT RUGBY CLUB ASCRUM IS LOOKING FOR A NEW HEAD COACH

The head coach will be tasked with training (Tuesday and Thursday) and coaching the 1st team (Saturdays or Sundays), as well as determining a gameplan which aligns to our strengths. Furthermore, as a head coach of the 1st team, we expect you to align and organize with the other coaches to get the club moving forward as a whole.

Profile:

- ❖ Understands and fits within the unique culture of our student club
- ❖ Has coaching experience on an adequate level
- ❖ Brings broad technical rugby knowledge
  - Specialization in Forward coaching is a plus
- ❖ Is able to identify our strengths and weaknesses and act on them
  - Improve the level of the team
  - Create a gameplan to suit these strengths and weaknesses
- ❖ Is able to guide and collaborate with the rest of the training staff
- ❖ Is able to set up preseason 24/25, starting from August/July this year

We offer:

- ❖ A club with ambition to grow and improve
- ❖ A unique culture within the club, with a young, talented and intelligent group of players
- ❖ International coaching network for clinics and specialized training sessions
- ❖ Great facilities at the NRCA, including a gym
- ❖ Competitive compensation

If you are interested, please send a brief motivational letter and a description of your strengths as a coach. If you need more information or would like to visit, please do not hesitate to contact us.
